ADRIANOPLE IS IN DIRE STRAITS

Constantinople, March 12.—A despairing cry of "I can hold out only a week longer" was sent in cipher by wireless today from Shukri Pasha, Turkish commander of Adrianople, to his superior officers here, according to unofficial reports.

Shukri, who has held out many months against the hundreds of siege guns of the Bulgarians and Servians, is said to have informed the Porte in his messages that Adrianople is practically at the end of its supplies of food and ammunition, while there is much sickness, especially scurvy and intestinal disorders, which are ravaging the defenders' ranks.

The commander, who has offered such a long and gallant defense, urges either that peace negotiations be hastened or that an immediate attempt to relieve the city be undertaken from the Tchatalja lines.

The Turkish Ministry is divided in opinion and will have difficulty in reaching any solution of the problem reached by the commander of the besieged fortress.

The ferment aroused by the murder of the late Nazim Pasha continues to threaten internal trouble. At a service today in memory of Nazim the officiating priest pronounced a malediction on his assassins and on those who have deceived the Sultan of Turkey, the head of the Mussulman faith.

Too Much Booze.

Pawnee, Okla., March 13.—County court convened Monday at Pawnee with a rather full docket, mostly liquor cases. Large quantities of liquor have been seized within the last month at Keystone and other points on the Frisco, and those having liquor in charge at the time of seizure have to explain why they needed such a quantity. Something like $8,000 worth of booze is now stored in the city jail at Pawnee and this session of the court will determine its ownership and also the guilt or innocence of the parties charged with having the liquor on hand when taken.

South Carolina Teachers.

Columbia, S. C., March 13.—An army of more than a thousand public school teachers and other persons actively interested in educational work took Columbia by storm today and will remain in possession of the city until the end of the week. The occasion is the annual convention of the South Carolina State Teachers' association. The formal opening takes place this evening and the regular sessions and department conferences will begin tomorrow. R. C. Burts, of Greenville, is president of the association and will preside over all of the general sessions. A number of educators of prominence are here to address the sessions.

Gov. Byrd returned today from a business trip to Denison.

MEXICAN REBELS DESIRE PEACE

REVOLUTION IN NORTHERN MEXICO APPEARS ON VERGE OF COLLAPSE.

City of Mexico, March 12.—Surrounded by Government troops, Venustiano Carranza, the rebel Governor of Coahuila, who refused to recognize the Huerta Administration and initiated what appeared to be a formidable revolution, is suing for peace, according to official reports. Carranza is said to have 2,000 men.

Manuel Garza Aldape, named as Minister of Agriculture, who was sent North by the Government to effect a reconciliation, has telegraphed to President Huerta asking for a pardon for the rebellious governor.

Alberto Guarjardo, commander of the rurales, who joined the Carranza movement, is officially reported to have surrendered.

Representatives of various religious denominations in a testimonial to the service of the American Ambassador during the recent events in the capital, declare that he put forth extraordinary efforts to save the lives of President Madero and Vice President Suarez, and offered a home and place of refuge to several branches of their respective families.

The testimonial adds that the conduct of the Ambassador and Mrs. Wilson won the appreciation of the American colony.

A copy of the testimonial has been sent to the presidents of the United States and of Mexico.

BANK ROBBERY

AT TAMAH

Muskogee, Ok., March 12.—Pulling quietly into town in a skiff on the Arkansas River, robbers before daylight this morning cracked the safe at the Tamaha Bank, at Tamaha, Ok., securing $4,300. Slipping quietly back to the river before the job was discovered the gang slid away down stream in the darkness to evade possible pursuit.

SMITH SAYS:

suers, after cutting adrift all boats moored at the landing.

Boat loads of men scouted the river in both directions in a vain attempt to apprehend the robbers, and most of the searching party returned late today after giving up the pursuit.

Entrance was made through the rear of the bank and three shots of nitroglycerin blew the big safe to pieces, wrecking most of the furniture in the room. The robbery was not discovered until the men had several hours' start.

Tamaha is a small town on the river in a fine agricultural region, and the bank there usually carries a big supply of currency.

PERRY RECITAL WAS A SUCCESSFUL OCCASION

Wednesday evening Edward Baxter Perry, the blind lecturer and musician gave a recital at the Christian church. It was attended by a fair sized audience, and was pronounced first class by all present.

Don H. Stevens, one of Ada's letter carriers, was called out of the city today. M. V. Qualls of the force of clerks, has acted as his sub.

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS

SENATE WOULD ABOLISH STATE PRINTER'S OFFICE—HOUSE REJECTS DISTRICTING BILL.

Oklahoma City, March 13.—By a vote of 32 to 7 the senate, late Wednesday afternoon, passed the house bill by Pruett, abolishing the office of the state printer and transferring the work now conducted by that department to the state board of public affairs. With the signature and approval of Governor Cruce the bill becomes a law and the state printing department, as now constituted, will be wiped out. The governor's approval of the bill is confidently expected in view of the fact that the abolition of the office was recommended by him in his message to the legislature.

The bill was opposed by Senator Barrett and others, who declared that conditions were different now than

If you Value Your Eyesight, see An Expert Optometrist. I have spent 20 years preparing myself to perfect the refraction of the eye. My modern equipment, backed by this long experience is your Guarantee of Satisfaction. A. D. COON, Ramsey's Drug Store, Ada, Okla.

what they were at the time the governor recommended the abolition of the printing department, that the incumbent of the office at that time had been found guilty of certain irregularities and the alleged corrupt condition had been remedied by Farris' impeachment and that the present state printer is competent, capable and would conduct the department economically and to the best interests of the state.

Senator Roddie advocated the passage of the bill because he said he wanted to "pass one bill to abolish a state office that the governor would not veto." He referred to the fact that the governor had recommended the abolition of the state printer and expressed the belief that the governor will not veto the bill on that account. "It's impossible for us to do anything that the chief executive don't want us to do," said Senator Roddie. "We are nothing more than figureheads." Referring to the governor's veto of the bill to abolish the state enforcement office, Senator Roddie said, "It's ridiculous when the senate abolishes an office by an almost unanimous vote and the next day the governor vetoes it."

The house bill to abolish the office of state fish and game warden was taken up by the senate Wednesday night and several amendments were adopted, the most important being one by Senator J. Elmer Thomas of Lawton, which does away with the provision to pay the chairman of the fish and game commission a salary of $3,000 and an additional $800 for traveling expenses. The other two members of the commission are to serve free.

Under the terms of the Thomas amendment the governor can appoint the members of the commission with the consent and approval of the senate. The commissioners so appointed may select a secretary, who shall receive a salary of $1,800. All appointments shall not extend beyond the term of the governor under whose direction the appointments are made. Another amendment which was adopted does away with twelve deputy game wardens, who work on a salary of $1,200 a year, and places the enforcement of the game laws in the hands of all peace officers of the respective communities.

The roll on the bill, as amended, will be called some time Thursday.

By a tie vote of 44 to 44, the house of representatives Wednesday rejected a report by the conference committee on congressional redistricting which sought to adjust the difference between the two houses. Another conference committee now is necessary.

The liveliest objection to the conference committee bill was that Oklahoma county was put in a doubtful and probably republican district along with its ancient enemy, Logan county, wherein is Guthrie, the former seat of the state capital. There were general objections, also, and some plain remarks about the congressmen who were attempting to dictate to the legislature and about the ma-

Ryan's Alleged Assailant on Trial.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 13.—After a delay of more than a year Detective Robert J. Foster was placed on trial today on a charge of assaulting Frank M. Ryan, president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers. Foster was a detective in the employ of the National Erectors' Association. On January 27, 1912, he is alleged to have entered Ryan's office and the latter is said to have ordered him out. In the dispute Foster is alleged to have struck Ryan. At the time of the alleged occurrence the Federal grand jury was investigating the charges against Ryan and other officials of the union in what has become known as the "dynamite conspiracy" case. The investigation resulted in the indictment and conviction of Ryan, who is now out on bond pending the settlement of his appeal.

APPOINTMENT AN INSULT.

Walter Ferguson, son of ex-Governor Tom Ferguson, and editor of the Cherokee Republican, who was recently appointed by Governor Cruce as a delegate to the international peace congress, rejects the honor in the following strong terms:

"The governor of the state has appointed the editor of this paper as a delegate to the international peace congress, but the commission is refused, and the opportunity to mingle with doves and olive branches unanimously rejected. It is nothing short of slander for the governor to make an effort to impose this commission on a veteran of the Crazy Snake rebellion and a staff officer of the Chickasaw Rifles. Familiar as he is with the long military duty done while a colonel on the staff of General Murray the governor should realize that we are a man of war and not of peace. Few insults in the record of this state parallel this one, and we hurl the commission back at the white neck tie which adorns the chief executive's Adam's apple.

To make all effort to induce a colonel of the Chickasaw Squirrel Rifles to attend a peace conference and participate in the proceedings is a flagrant abuse of the executive power, and the legislature should include this gross error in the proposed articles of impeachment. It is an insult that cannot be lightly overlooked. It is deeper than if he should appoint Clarence Douglas a delegate to the international barber's convention; more deadly than the section of E. J. Giddings to the national dumb institute more direct a thrust than would be the naming of Colonel Sidney Suggs to a prohibition congress; more flagrant a violation of this than the section of Roy Stafford to a Parchesi contest, and, in fact, the insult can only be paralleled by the arbitrary selection of Bob Williams as a delegate to a mothers' congress. In fairness to the record, we must decline the commission, and suggest to the esteemed governor that he secure some man of peace like Henry Robbins or John Golobie, who know nothing of war and who would blanch at the smell of blu-u-u-d."

Like Banquo's ghost the troublesome Article 9, Section 9, in the Oklahoma constitution will not down. Far from it. It has been voted on three times and it now appears likely that it will soon be handed down by the legislature for another pull. The News does not profess to be an authority on this measure, but if, under proper restrictions, some larger road were permitted to take over the Oklahoma Central it would certainly prove a great benefit to Ada. Looks to us as if the constitutional provision were a trifle too drastic on this point.

There are instances happening daily in the criminal courts of the land where the prisoner and the witnesses are subjected to insults from the state's counsel, wherein there is no redress, but where the presiding judge might do well to exercise his prerogative and fine the attorneys heavily. Attacks of a personal nature and abusive language, together with innuendoes cast upon both prisoner and witnesses do not constitute evidence, but they have a considerable weight upon the minds of the jurors.—Ardmoreite.

The world is indeed a stage and a great majority of the actors are confident that they have the center of the stage right in the limelight, and that the performances of most others are bum.

Some of the states of northern Mexico have seceded from the republic. It now remains to see if they can make the secession stick.

GOOD RAIN FELL WEDNESDAY NIGHT

According to Presnal Sugg, local weather observer, the rainfall of Wednesday night amounted to 68-100 of an inch. Considering the good season already in the ground, this shower will be of no little benefit to crops already in the ground and in keeping the ground in good fix for sometime to come.

The forecast for Friday is for fair weather and colder.

We are taking this method of asking our patrons to come to our rescue. This business is one that requires cash at the end of each week to handle the pay roll. We also pay cash for our supplies and most of this cash is turned back to you, the profits are in outstanding accounts.

We ask as a great favor to please have the money ready for your laundry bill when the collector presents same.

Please do not misunderstand. We are not in the least uneasy about these accounts. We only ask this so as to be able to meet our obligations promptly, and unless we get the money promptly for what we do we cannot come up with our part and any business that is a drag, is a bad one.

FUNERAL AND INTERMENT OF R. J. ROSS

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the funeral services were held at the First Baptist church. Rev. C. Stubblefield, the pastor, delivered a short eulogy on the life of the deceased in a most touching manner. The Odd Fellows paid their tribute according to their impressive ritual, paying the last well deserved honors to their deceased brother.

The Masonic fraternity escorted the body to its last resting place and laid it to rest with all the impressive of the order.

The procession to the cemetery was one of the longest ever seen at Ada. While it was passing through town the business houses closed as a mark of respect to the deceased, a high tribute to the splendid character of him who had passed away.

The Power of the Press as an Educator

A great man declared that no hours of his day were better employed or more enjoyable, than those which brought him in close touch with people in all walks of life.

Of course, he referred to the hours spent in reading the daily newspaper. The newspaper brings you in touch with people the world over and with the affairs of every country.

Read your newspaper carefully tonight. Discuss its varied subjects at the table, in the evening, or whenever the occasion presents itself. The daily newspaper, with its many excellent features, affords a splendid post-graduate course for grown-ups and gives the children more general information in one evening than they are apt to learn at school in many days.

It will also pay you to read the advertisements closely and constantly every day for they contain valuable information of new goods and opportunities to economize.

The civil service commission has agreed to allow graduates in our agricultural course to compete with students from other colleges for the position of Scientific Assistant in the Agricultural Department. GRANDMOTHERS USED SAGE TEA

To Darken the Hair and Restore Gray and Faded Hair to Its Natural Color.

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hair before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the wisdom of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair and are fast following suit.

The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready-to-use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Remedy. As a scalp tonic and color restorer this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers.

The growth and beauty of the hair depends on a healthy condition of the scalp. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy quickly kills the dandruff germs which rob the hair of its life, color and lustre, makes the scalp clean and healthy, gives the hair strength, color and beauty, and makes it grow.

DEMENTED MAN

FOUND AT OAKMAN

This morning Clay Stephens, who lives near Oakman, found a man wandering about in a demented condition. He phoned to the sheriff's office and Deputy Sheriff Duncan responded immediately. The man was brought to Ada, adjudged insane and was taken to the hospital this afternoon by Mr. Duncan.

When found the man had torn his clothing to tatters. He had no idea where he was nor where he had come from. He is apparently about 40 years of age and said his name was Will Winton. He did not display any violent tendencies, but seemed to have lost reason completely.

Presnal Sugg is the first of the pilgrims to Washington to reach home. He arrived Wednesday afternoon, after a long round from Washington and New York. Presnal says he was able to see the inaugural ceremonies only from a distance, there being something like a million people between him and the spot occupied by the president. This is enough to raise his reputation for veracity to the highest notch, for most spectators would have claimed to have occupied a place on the rostrum, beside the president. However, Presnal is highly pleased with his trip.

SECOND DOOR FROM THE POSTOFFICE

NEW ENGLAND OUT IN THE COLD

Washington, D. C., March 12.—That the six great states of the upper Mississippi valley have no place in the new cabinet has been a subject of some comment since the change in administration, but what seems more surprising, in the minds of the old-timers in the capital, is the fact that New England is without representation in Mr. Wilson's official family.

In leaving New England out in the cold Mr. Wilson has all but established a precedent. Only once before in the history of the nation has New England been without representation in the cabinet. This was during the administration of John Quincy Adams, from 1825 to 1829.

During the administrations of President Washington New England was represented in the cabinet by Timothy Pickering of Massachusetts, secretary of state; Oliver Wolcott of Connecticut, secretary of the treasury, and Samuel Osgood of Massachusetts, postmaster-general. Secretaries Pickering and Wolcott continued in office under President Adams and later Samuel Dexter of Massachusetts, Roger Griswold of Connecticut and Theophilus Parsons of Massachusetts came into the cabinet.

In Jefferson's cabinet New England's representatives were Henry Dearborn of Massachusetts, secretary of war; Jacob Crowninshield of Massachusetts, secretary of the navy; Gideon Granger of Connecticut, postmaster general, and Levi Lincoln of Massachusetts, attorney general.

President Madison had William Eustis of Massachusetts for secretary of war, B. W. Crowninshield of Massachusetts, secretary of the navy, and Gideon Granger of Connecticut, postmaster general.

John Quincy Adams of Massachusetts was secretary of state under President Monroe and Mr. Crowninshield continued for a short time as secretary of the navy.

Levi Woodbury of New Hampshire was in the cabinet of President Jackson, serving first as secretary of the treasury and later as secretary of the navy.

Mr. Woodbury continued as secretary of the treasury through the administration of President Van Buren and John H. Niles of Connecticut served for a time as postmaster general.

Daniel Webster of Massachusetts was appointed secretary of state by President W. H. Harrison and continued into the administration of Tyler. David Henshaw of Massachusetts also sat in the Tyler cabinet as secretary of the navy.

George Bancroft of Massachusetts was secretary of the navy in Polk's cabinet and Nathan Clifford of Maine and Isaac Toucey of Connecticut were attorneys general.

Jacob Collamer of Vermont was the New England representative in President Taylor's cabinet, serving as postmaster general.

Caleb Cushing of Massachusetts was attorney general under President Pierce.

Isaac Toucey of Connecticut was secretary of the navy under President Buchanan and Horatio King of Maine served for a brief period as postmaster general.

In the Lincoln cabinet were William P. Fessenden of Maine, secretary of the treasury, and Gideon Welles of Connecticut, secretary of the navy. Mr. Welles continued in the cabinet of President Johnson.

Grant's cabinet officers included George S. Boutwell and William A. Richardson of Massachusetts, secretaries of the treasury; Ebenezer Hoar of Massachusetts, attorney general, and Marshall Jewell of Connecticut, postmaster general.

Charles Devens of Massachusetts, attorney general, was the New England representative in President Hayes' official family.

James G. Blaine of Maine was President Garfield's secretary of state, and President Arthur had William B. Chandler of New Hampshire for secretary of the navy. William C. Endicott of Massachusetts was secretary of war during the first Cleveland administration.

In the McKinley cabinet John D. Long of Massachusetts was secretary of the navy. In the Roosevelt cabinet Mr. Long was succeeded by William H. Moody, also of Massachusetts, and George von L. Meyer, also a Massachusetts man, became postmaster general.

In the Taft cabinet Mr. Meyer became secretary of the navy, while Frank H. Hitchcock, also hailing from Massachusetts, succeeded him as postmaster general.

Bud Gregg returned this morning from a business trip to Tishomingo and Mill Creek.

Mistake Prevents Burglar's Capture.

While two motor car loads of police and detectives surrounded a house a block away in an effort to catch a burglar, a mysterious intruder walked through several rooms in the residence of C. E. Zahn, 215 West Thirteenth street Wednesday night, and after arousing the occupants, coolly walked out the front door and disappeared. He secured nothing.

The police received a call at 10.10 o'clock Wednesday night from Senator Roddie, that the residence at 315 West Thirteenth street was being robbed. He meant 215 West Thirteenth street. The police rushed to the place but the house was vacant. Seeing a light in the residence of W. H. Crane, 319 West Thirteenth street, the police surrounded the house but found no burglar.

At first, the police believed they had been the victims of a practical joker but later it was discovered that the mistake had prevented the capture of a possible real burglar.—Oklahoman.

To Try Former Bank President.

Trenton, N. J., March 13.—Following numerous postponements and other delays the case of Robert M. Petty, formerly president of the First National Bank of Washington, N. J., was moved for trial in the United States District Court here today. Petty was indicted for misusing the funds of the bank, and entered a plea of not guilty several terms ago. Since then his trial has been postponed from time to time while his friends made an effort to make good the alleged shortage and to adjust his financial affairs generally.

Rheumatic Blood is Whole Story

Wonderful Specific for Sciatica, Lumbago, and a Cure for Dreaded Arterial Rheumatism.

There is a host of pills, powders, tablets and what-not for rheumatism, but they all lack the first essential to being a natural medicine. To begin with, rheumatism is simply a name given to designate a variety of pains, and can only be reached by irrigating the entire blood supply with a naturally assimilative antiseptic. True, the pains may be caused with narcotics or the acids may be neutralized for the time being with other acids. But these merely temporize and do not even tend to a cure. There is but one standard rheumatic remedy, and it reflects the best thought of the day. It is prepared in the great Swift Laboratory in Atlanta, Ga., and sold in all drug stores under the name of S. S. S. at $1.00 a bottle.

Starvation has been advocated by many as a cure for rheumatism, and yet S. S. S. accomplishes in fact what faddists proclaim in theory and without the punishment of starvation. Hot springs and sweating are often recommended, but S. S. S. does all that is expected of these expensive and weakening methods.

It is conceded by the closest students of the subject that rheumatism is caused in most cases by an acid condition of the blood and aggravated by the remedies commonly used for relief. In other cases rheumatism is the result of nerve depression, in still others it is the effect of some scrofulous blood condition, having been treated with mercury, iodides, arsenic and other poisonous mineral drugs. The recoveries of all these types of rheumatism by the use of S. S. S. is a wonderful tribute to the natural efficacy of this remarkable medicine, for it is assimilated just as naturally, just as specifically, and just as well ordained as the most acceptable, most palatable and most readily digested food. Do not fail to get a bottle of S. S. S. to-day. You will be astonished at the results. If your rheumatism is of such a nature that you would like to consult a great specialist confidentially, write to The Swift Specific Co., 127 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

RESOLUTIONS.

The Scythe of Time, by the immutable decree of the Great Architect of the Universe, has severed from us our beloved Companion, Robert J. Ross. It is with profound sorrow that we chronicle his sad and untimely death. Stricken in the pride of his manhood when in splendid health and when the cares and duties of life were lying lightly upon him; blessed with a devoted family and a record of many years of usefulness, untroubled by any of the trials and troubles that come to most men, he was summoned, and his soul is now in that undiscovered bourne from whence no traveler returns.

Be it resolved;

(1) That Ada Chapter No. 26 Royal Arch Masons extend to the bereaved family our deepest sympathy;

(2) That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of our beloved Companion, and a copy retained as a part of the records of the Chapter.

Mr. Charles W. Zorn, of the Ada and Roff Nurseries, has decided to give a one-year old shade tree to each pupil in the public schools of the city on condition that they will plant and care for same. These trees will be given to the children tomorrow which is Arbor day and they may put them out at any place in the city which they may select. Supt. Robison has asked the children to measure the trees after they have planted them and on next Arbor day they will measure them again and the pupils whose tree has grown the most will be designated as the "Champion Tree Grower" and will be given a blue ribbon with those words printed on it.

It Makes All the Difference In the World

That's what you say when you tell your friends about your shopping expeditions. It may be the principals of the store, the service it offers or the quality of the goods it sells that you are discussing. But the difference to you means your satisfaction or disappointment.

You will find when you deal with the merchants who advertise in the NEWS that the difference stands always for satisfaction. Each store values its reputation too much to risk disappointing you. Each wants your good will. So they direct every effort to serve you best and give you the best values.

Who Will Be 13th White House Bride?

Washington, D. C., March 13.—For the first time since the brief administration of President Taylor the presidential household has three marriageable girls forming a part of it. The advent of the President and Mrs. Wilson and their three "bachelor" daughters has naturally aroused Washington society to speculation as to the possibility of one or more White House weddings during the administration now begun.

The first White House wedding took place a little more than a century ago, when Mrs. Madison's younger sister, Lucy Payne Washington, widow of a nephew of George Washington, was the bride.

During President Jackson's administration three weddings took place in the historic mansion, those of Della Lewis of Nashville and Alphonse Pageot, a member of the French legation; Mary Easton, a niece of Mrs. Jackson, and Lucien B. Polk, and dent, and Lewis Randolph.

The next White House wedding was that of Elizabeth Tyler, daughter of President Tyler, and William Waller of Virginia. The next was the famous wedding of Nellie Grant and Algernon Sartoris.

The White House weddings of late years, in the order in which they took place were those of Emily Platt, a niece of President Hayes, and General Russell Hasting; Miss Frances Folsom and President Cleveland, and Miss Alice Roosevelt and Nicholas Longworth.

The list to date totals an even dozen. Now the question asked is whether one of the Wilson girls will flout superstition and become the thirteenth White House Bride.

John R. Wayne and family left Wednesday afternoon for Oaktah, south of Muskogee, where they will reside on their farm. The family made many warm friends during their year's residence in Ada.
